Senator Jacobs Announces Women's Entrepreneurial Day Award Farmington Businesswoman Janice Rolnick Honored

(LANSING)—Senator Gilda Jacobs (D-Huntington Woods) honored Farmington resident Janice Rolnick this week during the Women's Bipartisan Caucus Entrepreneurship Action Day in Lansing.

"It was a privilege to be able to present Janice with this special tribute," said Jacobs. "Her entrepreneurial spirit and dedication are what have made her such a successful businesswoman and role model for young women throughout the state."

Ms. Rolnick is the president of Credential Check and Personnel Services, Inc., which she founded over nineteen years ago. She has been a consultant on pre-employment profile investigations for a number of major corporations. Her clients include public utilities, health care facilities, educational institutions, and many others. Under her leadership, her company has become known as one of the best agencies of its kind.

"The Michigan Bipartisan Women's Caucus sets aside one day each year to honor innovative and successful women in business," said Jacobs. "This is part of a national celebration honoring women entrepreneurs. It was an honor to be able to recognize Janice Rolnick's accomplishments and dedication to her business, her family, and her community with this award."
